INSTRUCTIONS FOR USING THE

MUSIC ARTICLE GUIDE 1994 ANNUAL CUMULATIVE INDEX (Vol. XXIX, Nos.1-4)

GENERAL

Included in this 1994 ANNUAL CUMULATIVE INDEX are entries relating to significant signed feature articles in American music periodicals which have appeared, with annotation, in the MUSIC ARTICLE GUIDE in 1994 - Vol.XXIX, Nos.1-4. The computer-generated alphabetical arrangement - uniquely designed to provide access to vital reference data easily, quickly and accurately - lists the following entries: subject heading (bold CAPS), author (lower case), and subject (CAPS).

SPECIFIC ARRANGEMENT

Subject Heading entry:

Included for each subject heading entry are the following, in order of appearance: subject heading (bold CAPS); full name of author (lower case, in parenthesis); complete title of article (CAPS); and, in brackets, the name (abbreviated) of music periodical in which article appeared (key to abbreviations may be found on page 143); date (abbreviated) of music periodical (key to abbreviations may be found on page iii; page number; an "I" if the article is illustrated; and finally, outside of the bracket, the date (abbreviated) of MUSIC ARTICLE GUIDE issue in which annotated listing may be found. A fictitious example follows:

BROWN, JOHN (Jones, Rebecca T.) INTERVIEW WITH NORWAY'S PIANIST/FLUTIST JOHN BROWN, AN: FOCUS ON 18TH-CENTURY ORNAMENTATION PRACTICES [PQJa93,35,I] Sp93

Author entry:

Each author entry lists (in parenthesis) the subject heading (BOLD CAPS) and the first word of the title (CAPS) under which the entry may be found. A fictitious example follows:

Jones, Rebecca T. (see BROWN, JOHN - INTERVIEW...)

Subject entry:

The above fictitious article listing would also be cross-referenced under the following subject listings: FLUTE; ORNAMENTATION; PIANO. Fictitious examples follow:

FLUTE (see BROWN, JOHN - INTERVIEW...)
ORNAMENTATION (see BROWN, JOHN - INTERVIEW...)
PIANO (see BROWN, JOHN - INTERVIEW...)

ADDITIONAL NOTES

In the interest of accuracy, middle initials in author entries are included only if they appeared in the original magazine article. As a result, authors of multiple articles may be listed, in some cases, both with and without their middle initials.

DIRECTORY OF AMERICAN MUSIC PERIODICALS

GENERAL NOTE: The listing of periodicals is alphabetical, by their abbreviations, as used in this Guide. The letter (or letters) in parentheses, immediately following the address, refers to the "Journal Classification Code" below. The code (A through I) was devised by Dr. Ruth Watanabe, Eastman School of Music, University of Rochester.

JOURNAL CLASSIFICATION CODE:

A. CURRENT-EVENTS PERIODICAL, with articles of interest to the concertgoer. The coverage may be international but tends to be concentrated on the national scene. The signed reviews of concerts and festivals indicate the nature of the music as well as the excellence of the performance. Reviews of new books, music, and records are a regular feature, and announcement of awards, personal notes, and vital statistics are included.

B. LEARNED JOURNAL, usually the official organ of a learned society and containing papers based on research, with musical examples and bibliographical aids. Reviews are directed to the professional and the specialist rather than to the layman. Professional announcements are included and congresses are summarized.

C. JOURNAL OF MUSIC EDUCATION AND PEDAGOGY, treating methods and materials of music teaching.
D. AUDIO MAGAZINE, a phenomenon of the twentieth century, featuring news of records and tapes, equipment, and various techniques of sound reproduction.

E. JOURNAL OF PERFORMING MEDIA, with articles on instruments or the voice and the forms of music used by them. Reviews tend to focus on the specific medium of the periodical, e.g., brass ensemble recitals in journals devoted to brass.

F. CHURCH-MUSIC JOURNAL, usually denominational, with emphasis on music's relation to liturgy and service.

G. "NEW MUSIC" JOURNAL, devoted to new techniques, forms and media, and addressed to the composer, theorist, and critic of contemporary styles.

H. PROMOTION OR PROPAGANDA JOURNAL, issued by composers, groups and national information centers, devoted to the musical activities of a group or nation.

I. NON-MUSIC JOURNAL, with an occasional article on music or with a regular department of music within a general context.

J. PERIODICALS OF THE FEDERATED STATE MUSIC EDUCATORS ASSOCIATIONS OF THE MUSIC EDUCATORS NATIONAL CONFERENCE, journals of music education and pedagogy.

K. POPULAR MUSIC MAGAZINES, devoted to popular music in all forms.

L. FOLK MUSIC MAGAZINE, with items of interest to the folksinger.

M. ORGANIZATIONAL/SCHOOL JOURNALS, addressed exclusively to school, club or organization membership. N. MUSIC INDUSTRY MAGAZINES, addressed to those who service the consumer of music, e.g., retail dealers, piano technicians, etc.
